

YOUR JOURNEY

into speech and language therapy

-
- GCSE (grades and subjects may differ across universities)
  - Functional Skills Level 2 (equivalent to grade C or level 4 GCSE)
  - National 5
  - Foundation Apprenticeships (Scotland)
  - National 4 & National Progression Awards (Scotland)
  - Welsh Baccalaureate National SCC (Wales)

- A levels (grades and subjects may differ across universities)
- T-level (or any other relevant Level 3 qualification)
- Highers
- Advanced Highers
- Foundation & Modern Apprenticeships
- SVQs and National Certificates (Scotland)
- Advanced Skills Baccalaureate (Wales)

 For some undergraduate apprenticeship courses relevant and sufficient work experience may be accepted (check with the university).

Undergraduate speech and language therapy course or Undergraduate apprenticeship speech and language therapy course.

A related undergraduate degree course (such as English language, Psychology and others - please check with the university).

Postgraduate course in speech and language therapy.

EMPLOYMENT AS A

Speech and Language Therapist

(this can be in the NHS or another organisation)

For more information on becoming a speech and language therapist visit rcslt.info/slt-careers