

RCSLT AT 80

Try out our celebration pledges - eight ideas for actions, big and small, to make a difference to the speech and language therapy profession and get more support for service users. Remember to share what you're doing by tagging @RCSLT and #RCSLTat80 on social media.

one

Give a talk at a local school or careers fair to promote speech and language therapy as a profession

two

Complete your member profile to help to build a better picture of our working lives

three

Lobby your local council to get a communication board in your local park or communal space

Complete Communications Access UK training and share the training link with one other person five

Lobby your MP to campaign for better resourcing for speech and language therapy six

Host an SLTea party at your workplace or university to celebrate 80 years of the profession

seven

Raise money for a charity that supports people who might need speech and language therapy eight

Read our guidance to help support those who are LGBTQIA+, disabled or neurodivergent
